

How WWILD can help people with intellectual disabilities

Information and support with

- Feeling safer
- Help to find services to help make you safer
- Talking to police if you want to
- Going to court
- Meetings with Lawyers
- Applying for VAQ financial assistance
- Counselling—talking to someone about how you are feeling
- Groups—meeting with other people to have fun, feel better and learn new things.

Talk to WWILD about how we can help
Call WWILD on (07) 3262 9877

Let us know if you need an interpreter

Welcoming, Respecting, Celebrating

Is someone making you feel scared?

Is someone hurting or controlling you?

Speaking to someone might help you to

- Think about what you need to be safe

- Understand how the law and the police might help you

You deserve to be safe

How WWILD can help supporters of people with intellectual disabilities

We can talk to you about:

- How you can support someone with an intellectual disability to recover from violence
- making a referral to WWILD
- suggest other services that can help

Education and Training

Talk to us about providing information / training about:

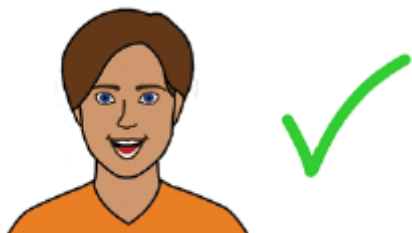

- Understanding intellectual disability
- Supporting someone with an intellectual disability through the justice system
- Adjusted Counselling Skills
- Responding to Disclosures of Sexual Violence
- Domestic and Family Violence and intellectual disability
- Training customized to your service
- Individual Case consultation

Resources and Online training developed by WWILD can be found at www.wwild.org.au

Our Vision

WWILD works with people with intellectual disabilities to help them live safe lives with no violence.

Everyone has a right to live a safe life, with no violence.

You Deserve to Be Safe!

We support people:

- With intellectual and learning disabilities
- Who have been a victim or survivor of sexual violence or other crimes
- Aged 12 years and over
- Of all genders and sexualities
- Of all cultural backgrounds

How to get to WWILD?

Phone:
Email:
Website:
Post:

(07) 3262 9877
info@wwild.org.au
www.wwild.org.au
PO Box 495
Lutwyche QLD 4030

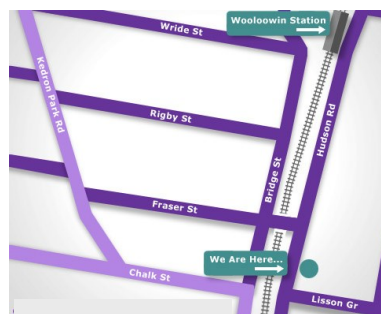

Our address is:

211 Hudson Road, Woolloowin

We are in the blue house on the corner of Lisson Grove and Hudson Road.

We are a very short walk from Woolloowin train station.

We see people in the Greater Brisbane, Logan and Caboolture Regions

WWILD is funded by the Queensland State Government, Department of Justice and Attorney-General.

WWILD

Support for people with intellectual or learning disabilities who have been a victim or survivor of sexual violence or other crimes

Sexual Violence Prevention Program

Victim of Crime Support Program

WWILD Sexual Violence Prevention Association acknowledges the Turrbal and Jagera peoples as the true owners of the land on which we live and work.